Failure to provide this information will result in permission to board being refused. 6. Delayed or Cancelled Sailings

- i. We will seek to provide you, your luggage and vehicle with the journey as booked although ferries, sailing times/dates and destinations may be affected by weather conditions, port closures, industrial disputes or changed by other operational requirements.

Once checked-in, if we cannot provide the anticipated service within 90 minutes of your scheduled departure time, we will try to arrange a suitable alternative ferry crossing, provided that alternative travel is available and can be reasonably supplied. We will refund the Total P&O Ferries Fare of the affected inbound and/or outbound crossing if we cannot ship you at all with us or arrange a suitable alternative ferry crossing, or if you do not wish to take any alternative journey offered by us. If your departure is delayed and your journey will no longer serve any purpose, having regard to your original travel plan, a refund of the full ticket price shall be considered upon submission of reasonable supporting evidence.

- ii. Where we do not anticipate a delay but after embarkation has completed the ferry service is then delayed in departure for more than 90 minutes, it will not always be possible to then disembark with a vehicle. In this case, it may be necessary for you to continue your journey.

7. Passenger Rights Regulation

- i. The provisions set out in this clause detail your rights with respect to delays and cancellations pursuant to the EU Passenger Rights Regulation 2010, as may be amended from time to time. These provisions do not apply to tickets where no time of departure is specified or delays or cancellations that are caused by severe weather conditions.

- ii. Where a delay requires a stay of one or more nights in order to travel on the next available sailing you shall be entitled to one of the following:
 - a) Reimbursement for up to three nights' accommodation (limited to €80 per person per night, or per room (whichever is the lesser)) and transport between the port and the accommodation, on submission of applicable receipts. If using your own vehicle, a portion of the fuel costs will be reimbursed in line with average fuel costs as published by RAC Fuel Watch (or equivalent if RAC Fuel Watch is unavailable).
 - b) Free transport between your home and the port, limited to a maximum of €20 per person or per car (whichever is the lesser), on submission of applicable receipts. If using your own vehicle, a portion of the fuel costs will be reimbursed in line with average fuel costs as published by RAC Fuel Watch (or equivalent if RAC Fuel Watch is unavailable).
- iii. If your sailing is delayed in arrival by at least:
 - a) one hour in case of a scheduled journey of up to four hours;
 - b) two hours in case of a scheduled journey of more than four hours, but not exceeding 8 hours;
 - c) three hours in case of a scheduled journey of more than eight hours, but not exceeding 24 hours; or
 - d) six hours in case of a scheduled journey of more than 24 hours;

you shall be entitled to compensation equal to 25% of your ticket price for the affected portion of your journey. If the delay exceeds double the time set out above, you shall be entitled to compensation equal to 50% of your ticket price for the affected portion of your journey. The provisions of this sub-clause do not apply to delays or cancellations that are caused by unavoidable extraordinary circumstances, such as natural disasters, sea search and rescue, port closures or industrial disputes.

- iv. Compensation shall be paid within one month after submission of a valid request in the form of vouchers, unless you request payment in cash. Compensation shall not be paid for any claims under €6 or its sterling equivalent. Vouchers issued as compensation are non-transferable and may not be resold or bartered.

8. Your responsibilities

- i. A passport for each individual passenger (including children and infants), valid for at least 6 months beyond the date of return, is required for all trips to and from the United Kingdom. It is your responsibility to ensure that you have all documentation needed to comply with the requirements of immigration, customs, health and other relevant regulations. We reserve the right to check and record details of such documentation and to refuse you permission to board if such documentation is not produced to our satisfaction. You will be required to reimburse us in full for any fines, repatriation or other removal costs, detention costs and all related expenses, which we may bear or incur by reason of your failure to produce such documentation to the relevant authorities. Children under 16 must be accompanied by a responsible adult i.e. over 18 years of age, whilst children of 16-17 may travel unaccompanied only with written authority from a parent or guardian to do so. The absence of such authority will lead to the refusal of embarkation.
- ii. It is your responsibility to check-in by the time specified.

Short Sea routes: check in closes:

- 90 minutes prior to scheduled departure time for foot passengers or if you are travelling with pets
- 60 minutes prior to the scheduled departure time for all other categories of traffic

North Sea routes: check in closes 90 minutes prior to the scheduled departure time.

Please note sailings may depart before scheduled departure times on all North Sea routes.

Irish Sea routes: check in closes:

- 60 minutes prior to the departure time if you have requested special assistance
 - 45 minutes prior to the scheduled departure for foot passengers or if you are travelling with pets
 - 30 minutes prior to the scheduled departure time for all categories of traffic
- Please note: Sailings may depart before scheduled departure times on all Irish Sea routes.

- iii. If you arrive later than this, on Short Sea and Irish Sea routes, you may not be allowed to board and whilst we will make every effort to arrange for you to travel on a later sailing, we reserve the right to make a surcharge in these circumstances in accordance with paragraph 5v above. On North Sea routes, missing the latest check-in time, without prior notification to our Contact Centre, will result in your booked sailing being cancelled, and will require the purchase of a new ticket for that portion of your journey if necessary. Where Priority has been booked, failure to have checked in by the specified time will prevent priority loading. No refund will be made.
- iv. For legal requirements and general information about driving abroad, please contact your motoring organisation.
- v. It is your responsibility to check and fully comply with all the necessary rules of entry to different countries. We refer to the website of the following UK Government web page <https://www.gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice>.
- vi. For information and advice on health matters while travelling abroad contact the Department of Health
- vii. You are advised to take out your own health insurance, as cover under national schemes is not always comprehensive.
- viii. Medical services are not always available on board. If you travel with a pre-diagnosed condition, then travel is entirely at your own risk and you should obtain advice from your own doctor before travelling.
- ix. If you are a person with a disability or if you have reduced mobility, you are requested to notify us at the time of booking or at least 48 hours prior to your departure if you require any assistance, have any special needs with respect to seating or accommodation or need to bring medical equipment on board. Please phone our Contact Centre for further information.
- x. On North Sea routes women who are more than 28 weeks pregnant should consult their doctor before travelling and will be required to provide a medical certificate / letter issued by competent care authority, covering both the outward and return journey dates, prior to travel. If the medical certificate / letter issued by competent care authority only covers the outward journey date, then a second medical certificate will need to be obtained prior to and for the return journey. Failure to do so will result in embarkation being refused. Travel will not be permitted where women are more than 34 weeks pregnant.
On Short Sea and Irish Sea routes a medical certificate / letter issued by competent care authority will be required for women who are more than 38 weeks pregnant. For the avoidance of doubt, note that for all routes, the stage of pregnancy previously stated refers to the stage reached at time of travel and not at time of booking. The medical certificate / letter issued by competent care authority is required to confirm fitness to travel. A maternity certificate will not be accepted in its stead. In special circumstances we reserve the right to refuse carriage or request a medical certificate / letter issued by competent care authority at any stage of pregnancy. You should be aware that we will not be able to supply any seasickness remedies.

- xi. If, in our opinion, you are suffering from any medical condition that may endanger the health or safety of any other persons on board then we reserve the right to refuse to allow you embark or require that you disembark.

9. Pets

- i. If you are travelling with a pet this must be declared at the time of booking and in advance of travel. Arrangements for pets on board and check-in times vary by route and will be advised at the time of booking. Pets (excluding guide dogs and other registered assistance animals) will not be allowed in the passenger areas of the ship. It is your responsibility to provide all necessary documents and make all arrangements, including where necessary quarantine, to satisfy all legal requirements. Failure to do so will prevent your pet from being permitted to travel.

Your dog must be kept on a lead when being escorted to and from Dog Areas and within all communal Dog Areas. You are responsible for cleaning any mess created by your dog within the Dog Areas. We reserve the right to request that your dog is immediately muzzled, and/or immediately removed from communal Dog Areas and confined to a kennel, your car or your cabin as deemed necessary.
- ix. It is your responsibility to comply with the instructions provided within the cabins or in the "Pet Lounge" and to ensure that your dog does not disturb passengers in neighbouring cabins or communal areas.
- x. We will seek the co-operation from other passengers in not approaching your pet but cannot guarantee such actions. You may wish to consider, for the safety of your pet and other passengers, muzzling your pet. We do not accept any responsibility for any liability or damage caused by your pet while on board. You understand that if an injury or incident occurs which was caused by your pet, you may be reported to the relevant authorities, and in some cases, it could give rise to criminal or other legal liability.

- ii. Where cabin accommodation is compulsory, you will be advised at the time of booking and this must be included in your booking.
- iii. Where cabins are booked on overnight crossings, all passengers, including infants, will require a berth or cot. Only babies less than 24 months old are allowed to sleep in a separate baby cot. Please bring your own travel cot. Note that cots will only fit in certain cabins.
